

BLUE RIBBON INCOME FUND RENEWS NORMAL COURSE ISSUER BID

Toronto, November 30, 2018 – (TSX: RBN.UN) Blue Ribbon Income Fund (the “Fund”) has renewed its normal course issuer bid to purchase up to 1,625,500 units of the Fund representing approximately 10% of the public float of 16,255,241 units. The Fund may purchase up to 327,104 units in any 30 day period which is 2% of the 16,355,241 issued and outstanding units at November 23, 2018.

As of November 23, 2018, the Fund had purchased 444,400 units of the 1,854,700 units approved under its current bid at an average price of $8.96 per unit.

The units may be purchased for cancellation from December 5, 2018 to December 4, 2019 through the facilities of the TSX or other alternative Canadian trading system and may only be purchased at a price per unit not exceeding the last net asset value per unit. The Administrator of the Fund believes that such purchases are in the best interest of the Fund and are a desirable use of its available funds.

You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell units of the investment fund on the Toronto Stock Exchange or other alternative Canadian trading system (an “exchange”). If the units are purchased or sold on an exchange, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units of the investment fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning units of an investment fund. An investment fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the Fund. You can find more detailed information about the Fund in the public filings available at www.sedar.com. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
