WHY INVEST?

- Large-cap portfolio of primarily Canadian equities with high dividend growth rates and high dividend yields
- Dividend growth reflects company's ability to grow earnings and strong underlying business fundamentals
- Portfolio companies have generated a 9.7% per annum average dividend growth rate over 5 years to December 31, 2019
- Potential for capital appreciation for Class A shares due to leveraged exposure to Dividend Growth portfolio
- Distributions:
 - Preferred Shares - Target of $0.55 p.a.; $6.71 dividends declared since inception
 - Class A Shares - Target of $1.20 p.a.²; $13.49 distributions declared since

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

To provide holders of Preferred shares with fixed cumulative preferential quarterly cash distributions and to return the original issue price on the maturity date.

To provide holders of Class A shares with regular monthly cash distributions⁴ and the opportunity for capital appreciation.

You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell shares of the Fund on the Toronto Stock Exchange or other alternative Canadian trading system (an "exchange"). If the shares are purchased or sold on an exchange, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying shares of the investment fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning shares of an investment fund. An investment fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the Fund. You can find more detailed information about the Fund in the public filings available at www.sedar.com. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in share value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account certain fees such as redemption costs or income taxes payable by any securityholder that would have reduced returns. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
