WHY INVEST?

- Equal weight investment in Canada’s four largest publicly-listed life insurance companies (“Lifecos”) and the “Big Six” banks (“Banks”)
- Manager believes Canadian Lifecos and Banks are currently attractively valued relative to historical averages, representing a compelling entry point
- Lifecos and Banks all have a dominant market position in Canada, favourable demographic trends and significant international operations
- Potential for capital appreciation for Class A shares due to leveraged exposure to the Lifecos and Banks
- Distributions:

Preferred Shares - Target of $0.545 p.a.; $6.98 dividends declared since inception
 Class A Shares - Target of $1.20 p.a.;³ $15.05 distributions declared since inception

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

To provide holders of Preferred shares with fixed cumulative preferential quarterly cash distributions and to return the original issue price on the maturity date.

To provide holders of Class A shares with regular monthly cash distributions⁴ and the opportunity for capital appreciation.

You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell shares of the Fund on the Toronto Stock Exchange or other alternative Canadian trading system (an "exchange"). If the shares are purchased or sold on an exchange, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying shares of the investment fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning shares of an investment fund. An investment fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the Fund. You can find more detailed information about the Fund in the public filings available at www.sedar.com. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in share value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account certain fees such as redemption costs or income taxes payable by any securityholder that would have reduced returns. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
