1.0 NAME, FORMATION AND HISTORY

Blue Ribbon Income Fund is a closed-end investment trust with a registered office located at Bay Wellington Tower, Brookfield Place, 181 Bay Street, Suite 2930, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2T3. The Fund was established under the laws of the Province of Ontario pursuant to a declaration of trust dated July 11, 1997.

The Declaration of Trust was further amended on July 16, 2013 to amend the definition of Record Date.

On August 7, 2013, pursuant to a treasury offering of the Fund, 1,915,205 Units were issued. The total gross proceeds raised by the Fund were approximately $21.9 million.

On December 19, 2014, pursuant to a treasury offering of the Fund, 3,650,000 Units were issued. The total gross proceeds raised by the Fund were approximately $8.6 million.

1.1 Declaration of Trust

1.1.1 Investment Objectives

The Declaration of Trust provides that the Investment Objectives of the Fund are to provide Unitholders with a variable level of monthly cash distributions and the opportunity to participate in gains in the value of the Portfolio.

1.1.2 Investment Policies

The Fund invests its assets in a portfolio comprised of Portfolio Securities and having a weighting among the various classes of securities comprising the Portfolio Securities as the Investment Manager shall from time to time determine in its sole discretion. The Fund may also employ leverage of up to 25% of its Total Assets determined at the time of borrowing to purchase additional securities in accordance with the Investment Policies and Investment Restrictions, to enhance the total return of the Fund.

The assets of the Fund and any monies available for reinvestment at any time shall be invested by the Investment Manager in accordance with the Fund's Investment Objectives, Investment Policies and Investment Restrictions as expeditiously as prudent investment practice permits. During periods in which the Investment Manager and/or any sub-advisor believe changes in economic, financial or political conditions make it advisable, the Fund may for temporary defensive purposes reduce its holdings of Portfolio Securities and invest in certain Short-Term Investments. Pending the purchase of Portfolio Securities, the Fund invests the proceeds of any offering in Short Term Investments.

The Investment Policies may not be changed without the approval of Unitholders by Extraordinary Resolution.

1.1.3 General

The Declaration of Trust also provides for the administration of the Fund and governs matters including, without limitation, the powers of the Trustee, the issue and sale of Units, the registration and transfer of Units, the redemption and repurchase of Units, distributions to Unitholders, the provision of management and administration, investment management and custodial services to the Fund, the limitation on the liability of the Unitholders, the Trustee and other parties and the termination of the Fund.

As of November 20, 2009, the Fund is administered by Blue Ribbon Fund Management Ltd. pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement. Computershare Trust Company of Canada is the trustee of the Fund and CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the assets of the Fund. Bloom Investment Counsel, Inc. is the investment manager, which provides advisory and portfolio management services to the Fund pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement.

2.0 INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS

The Fund is a non-redeemable investment fund and is not considered to be a mutual fund under the securities legislation of the provinces and territories of Canada. While the Fund is subject to National Instrument 81-102 – Investment Funds (“NI 81-102”), it is not subject to all of the investment restrictions and operating policies that apply to mutual funds under such legislation. The Fund is managed in accordance with such applicable requirements and restrictions and the investment restrictions set out in the Declaration of Trust.

The Units are qualified investments under the Income Tax Act for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, deferred profit sharing plans, registered disability savings plans, tax-free savings accounts, first home savings accounts and registered education savings plans. During 2022, the Fund did not deviate from the rules under the Income Tax Act that apply to the status of the Units qualifying for inclusion in such plans. The tax legislation applicable to first home savings accounts does not come into force until April 1, 2023 (the “FHSA Amendments”).

The Units will generally not be a “prohibited investment” for trusts governed by a tax-free savings account, first home savings account, registered retirement savings plan, registered disability savings plan, registered education savings plan or registered retirement income fund unless the holder of a tax-free savings account, first home savings account or registered disability savings plan, the subscriber of a registered education savings plan, or the annuitant under a registered retirement savings plan or registered retirement income fund, as applicable, (i) does not deal at arm’s length with the Fund for purposes of the Income Tax Act or (ii) has a “significant interest” as defined in the Income Tax Act in the Fund. Generally, a holder, subscriber, or annuitant, as the case may be, will not have a significant interest in the Fund unless the holder, subscriber, or annuitant, as the case may be, owns interests as a beneficiary under the Fund that have a fair market value of 10% or more of the fair market value of the interests of all beneficiaries under the Fund, either alone or together with persons and partnerships with which the holder, subscriber, or annuitant, as the case may be, does not deal at arm’s length. In addition, the Units will generally not be a “prohibited investment” if the Units are “excluded property” as defined in the Income Tax Act for trusts governed by a tax-free savings account, first home savings account, registered retirement savings plan, registered disability savings plan, registered education savings plan, or registered retirement income fund. As noted above, the FHSA Amendments do not come into force until April 1, 2023.

Holders, subscribers, or annuitants should consult their own tax advisors with respect to whether Units would be prohibited investments, including with respect to whether the Units would be “excluded property”.

3.0 DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

3.1 The Units

The Fund is authorized to issue an unlimited number of a single class of transferable, redeemable units of beneficial interest, each of which represents an equal, fractional undivided interest in the net assets of the Fund. Each Unit entitles the Unitholder to the same rights and obligations as any other Unitholder and no Unitholder is entitled to any privilege, priority or preference in relation to any other Unitholder. On redemption of Units, however, the Fund may, in its sole discretion, and subject to the rules in the Income Tax Act relating to the allocation of income and capital gains to redeeming Unitholder discussed below, designate payable to the redeeming Unitholder, as part of the redemption price, any income or capital gain realized by the Fund in the taxation year of the Fund in which the redemption occurred. Each Unitholder is entitled to one vote for each Unit held and is entitled to participate equally with respect to any and all distributions made by the Fund, including distributions of Net Income and Net Capital Gains, if any. On termination or liquidation of the Fund, Unitholders of record are entitled to receive on a pro rata basis all of the assets of the Fund remaining after payment of all debts, liabilities and liquidation expenses of the Fund. The Declaration of Trust permits fractions of Units to be issued which have the same rights, restrictions, conditions and limitations attaching to whole Units in the proportion which they bear to a whole Unit, except that fractional Units do not have the right to vote.

The Income Tax Act denies a mutual fund trust a deduction in respect of (i) the portion of an allocation of a capital gain made to a unitholder on a redemption of a unit of the mutual fund trust that is greater than the capital gain that would otherwise have been realized by the unitholder on the redemption, and (ii) an allocation of ordinary income made to a unitholder on a redemption, in each case, if the unitholder's redemption proceeds are reduced by the allocation. See section 11.0 of this Annual Information Form.

On December 16, 2004, the Trust Beneficiaries' Liability Act, 2004 (Ontario) came into force. This statute provides that holders of units of a trust are not, as beneficiaries, liable for any act, default, obligation or liability of the trust if, when the act or default occurs or the liability arises, (i) the trust is a reporting issuer under the Securities Act (Ontario), and (ii) the trust is governed by the laws of Ontario. The Fund is a reporting issuer in each of the provinces of Canada and it is governed by the laws of Ontario by virtue of the provisions of the Declaration of Trust.

At no time may non-residents of Canada be the beneficial owners of a majority of the Units and the Trustee is obligated to inform the transfer agent and registrar of this restriction. The Trustee may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of the Units are resident. If the Trustee becomes aware, as a result of requiring such declarations or otherwise, that the beneficial owners of 40% of the Units then outstanding are, or may be, non-residents, or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustee may make a public announcement thereof. If the Trustee determines that a majority of the Units are beneficially held by non-residents, the Trustee may send a notice to such non-resident Unitholders, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or in such manner as the transfer agent and registrar may consider equitable and practicable, requiring such Unitholders to sell their Units or a portion thereof within a specified period of not less than 30 days. If a Unitholder receiving such notice has not sold the specified number of Units, or provided the Trustee with satisfactory evidence that such Unitholder is not non-resident, within such period, the Trustee may, on behalf of such Unitholder, sell such Units and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units. Upon such sale, the affected holders cease to be beneficial holders of such Units and their rights are limited to receiving the net proceeds of the sale of such Units.

3.2 Distributions

Distributions are payable to Unitholders of record on the last business day of each month and, unless a Unitholder is a participant in any distribution reinvestment plan established by the Fund, all cash distributions payable, less any amount required to be withheld therefrom under applicable law, are to be paid in Canadian dollars no later than the Distribution Date. The Fund will make monthly distributions to Unitholders at the discretion of the Trustee, upon the advice of the Administrator. Distributions will be paid out of revenue generated by the Portfolio and, if required, out of capital. Future distribution rates will be determined from time to time by the Administrator. There can be no assurance that the Fund will make any distribution in any particular month.

The Fund has also adopted a distribution reinvestment plan (the "Plan") and optional Unit purchase plan pursuant to which distributions paid to a Unitholder may, at the option of such Unitholder, be automatically reinvested on such Unitholder's behalf to purchase additional Units in accordance with the Plan. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and applicable securities laws, Unitholders may also apply additional cash payments towards the purchase of additional Units under the Plan. Notwithstanding the availability of the Plan, all distributions to non-resident Unitholders are paid in cash and may not be reinvested.

Many of the issuers of the securities in which the Fund invests are entitled to tax deductions relating to the nature of their assets, with the result that their cash distributions exceed the amount required to be included in the income of the recipients. As a result, cash distributions received by Unitholders from the Fund in a year may exceed the amount required to be included in their income for tax purposes and as a result, any such excess will be a return of capital. The proportion of the distributions characterized as a return of capital will be affected by Net Capital Gains realized by the Fund. To the extent that the Fund has received distributions from issuers included in the Portfolio as a return of capital that reduced the adjusted cost base of such securities to the Fund, the Fund may realize a capital gain if such securities are sold. In addition, the Fund may realize a capital gain on sales of securities if the securities sold have appreciated in value. Such capital gains will reduce the proportion of the distributions characterized as a return of capital.

The Fund is subject to tax under Part I of the Income Tax Act on the amount of its income for tax purposes for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it claims in respect of the amounts paid or payable to Unitholders in the year. Provided the Fund makes distributions in each year of its Net Income and Net Capital Gains, and provided the Fund deducts in computing its income the full amount available for deduction in each year, the Fund will not generally be liable for income tax under Part I of the Income Tax Act. In order to ensure this result, the Declaration of Trust provides that, if necessary, an Additional Distributable Capital Amount and Additional Distributable Income Amount will be automatically payable in each year to Unitholders of record on December 31. The Additional Distributable Capital Amount and Additional Distributable Income Amount may be necessary where the Fund realizes income for tax purposes which is in excess of the monthly distributions paid or made payable to Unitholders during the year. The Additional Distributable Capital Amount and Additional Distributable Income Amount may, provided the Fund does not have sufficient cash to pay the full amount of the required distributions, at the option of the Trustee, be satisfied by the issuance of additional Units having a value equal to the cash shortfall. The value of the additional Units to be issued is determined using the closing trading price or, if there was no trade, the average of the last bid and the last ask prices of the Units on such Additional Distribution Date or if not listed, such other value as the Trustee determines.

3.3 Amending the Declaration of Trust

3.3.1 Amendment of the Declaration of Trust by the Trustee

The Declaration of Trust provides that the Trustee is entitled to amend the Declaration of Trust without the consent of, or notice to, the Unitholders, to:

- a) ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations or requirements of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Fund;
- b) maintain the status of the Fund as a “mutual fund trust” and a “registered investment” under the Income Tax Act;
- c) make changes or corrections which counsel for the Fund advise are necessary or desirable for the correction of typographical mistakes or are required for the purpose of curing any ambiguity or defective or inconsistent provisions or omissions or manifest error; or
- d) provide added protection for Unitholders upon the advice of counsel to the Fund, but only if such amendments do not adversely affect the pecuniary value of the interest of the Unitholders or restrict any protection for the Trustee or the Administrator or increase their respective responsibilities.

3.3.2 Amendment of the Declaration of Trust by the Unitholders

Pursuant to any additional requirements set out in section 5.1(1) of NI 81-102, the Declaration of Trust provides that the following may only be undertaken with the approval of the Unitholders by an Extraordinary Resolution:

- a) any change of the Administrator other than pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement or in circumstances where the Administrator has been removed by the Trustee pursuant to the Declaration of Trust or the Administrative Services Agreement;
- b) the termination of the Trustee or any one of its affiliates as the trustee of the Fund;
- c) any change in the Investment Objectives, Investment Policies and Investment Restrictions unless such changes are necessary to ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations or other requirements imposed by applicable regulatory authorities from time to time;
- d) the liquidation, dissolution or termination of the Fund;
- e) an amendment to the Declaration of Trust to permit the redemption or retraction of Units at the option of the Unitholder or the Fund;
- f) any amendment to the Declaration of Trust which would adversely affect the Administrator that has not been approved by the Administrator;
- g) a material change in the Administrative Services Agreement;
- h) any increase in the fee paid to the Administrator;
- i) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Fund other than in the ordinary course of business;
- j) any amendment, modification or variation in the provisions or rights attaching to the Units; and
- k) any proposal to delist the Units from the TSX (or its successor), except where the Fund is being terminated or it ceases to meet the listing criteria of the TSX.

3.4 Termination of the Fund

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the Fund shall continue until the date specified in an Extraordinary Resolution of Unitholders calling for the termination of the Fund approved at a duly called meeting of the Unitholders. In addition to such termination upon the approval of the Unitholders, the Declaration of Trust also provides that the Fund may be terminated in the following circumstances:

- a) In the event that the Administrator resigns and no new Administrator is appointed by the Trustee within 120 days of the Administrator giving notice to the Trustee of such resignation, the Fund will automatically terminate on the date which is 60 days following the end of such 120 day period.
- b) The Administrator may, in its discretion, terminate the Fund without the approval of the Unitholders if, in its opinion, it would be in the best interests of the Unitholders to terminate the Fund.

In each case, the Fund must first file a news release that discloses the termination and the Fund may not terminate earlier than 15 days or later than 90 days after the filing of such news release, unless the Fund undertakes a reorganization of, or transfers assets to, another investment fund, if (i) the Fund ceases to continue after the reorganization or transfer of assets and (ii) the transaction results in Unitholders becoming securityholders in the other investment fund.

The Declaration of Trust provides that the Administrator may, in its discretion and upon not less than 30 days notice to the Unitholders, postpone the Termination Date by a period of up to 180 days if the Investment Manager advises the Administrator that it will be unable to convert all of the Fund Property to cash prior to the original Termination Date and the Administrator determines that it would be in the best interests of the Unitholders to do so. Upon termination, the Declaration of Trust provides that the Fund will distribute to Unitholders their pro rata portions of the remaining assets of the Fund which will include cash and, to the extent liquidation of certain assets is not practicable or the Administrator considers such liquidation not to be appropriate prior to the Termination Date, such unliquidated assets in specie rather than in cash. Following such distribution, the Declaration of Trust provides that the Fund will be dissolved.

4.0 VALUATION OF PORTFOLIO SECURITIES

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the Total Assets on any Valuation Date is calculated as follows:

- a) the value of any cash on hand or on deposit, bills, demand notes, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash received (or declared to holders of record on a date before the Valuation Date as of which the Total Assets are being determined, and to be received) and interest accrued and not yet received, shall be deemed to be the full amount thereof provided that if the Investment Manager has determined that any such deposit, bill, demand note, account receivable or prepaid expense is not otherwise worth the full amount thereof, the value thereof shall be deemed to be such value as the Investment Manager determines to be the fair value thereof;
- b) the value of any security which is listed or traded upon a stock exchange (or if more than one, on the principal exchange for the security, as determined by the Investment Manager) shall be determined by taking the latest available sale price of recent date, or lacking any recent sales or any record thereof, the simple average of the latest available offer price and the latest available bid price (unless in the opinion of the Investment Manager such value does not reflect the value thereof and in which case the latest offer price or bid price shall be used), as at the date of valuation on which the Total Assets are being determined, all as reported by any means in common use;
- c) the value of any security which is traded over the counter will be priced at the average of the last bid and asked prices quoted by a major dealer in such securities;
- d) the value of any security which is not listed or traded on a stock exchange or the resale of which is restricted by reason of a representation, undertaking or agreement by the Fund or by the Fund's predecessor in title shall be determined on the basis of such price or yield equivalent quotations (which may be public quotations or may be obtained from major market makers) as the Investment Manager determines best reflects its fair value;
- e) any market price reported in currency other than Canadian dollars shall be translated into Canadian currency at the rate of exchange available to the Fund at the time of valuation;
- f) listed securities subject to a hold period will be valued as described above with an appropriate discount, as determined by the Investment Manager, and investments in private companies and other assets for which no published market exists will be valued at fair market value as determined by the Investment Manager; and
- g) the value of any security or property to which, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, the above principles cannot be applied (whether because no price or yield equivalent quotations are available as above provided, or for any other reason) shall be the fair value thereof determined in good faith in such manner as the Investment Manager from time to time adopts.

Pursuant to item (g) above, the Investment Manager has not exercised its discretion to deviate from the valuation practices noted above in the last three years.

In connection with the foregoing, the net asset value and net asset value per Unit will be calculated in accordance with the rules and policies of the Canadian Securities Administrators or in accordance with any exemption therefrom that the Fund may obtain.

5.0 CALCULATION OF NET ASSET VALUE

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the net asset value per Unit on any Valuation Date is calculated by dividing the net asset value (determined by subtracting the aggregate amount of the liabilities of the Fund from the Total Assets, as described above) by the number of outstanding Units (before giving effect to any Units issued on that date).

The net asset value per Unit is calculated as at the close of business (the time at which trading closes on the TSX) on each Valuation Date. The net asset value and the net asset value per Unit is available to the public at no cost by calling 1-866-642-6001 and the net asset value per Unit is available on Brompton's website at www.bromptongroup.com. The Fund also makes the net asset value per Unit available to the financial press for publication on a weekly basis.

The net asset value is calculated in Canadian dollars.

6.0 PURCHASES OF FUND UNITS

6.1 General

The Units are listed for trading on the TSX under the symbol RBN.UN and may be purchased through the facilities of the TSX. Registration of interests in and transfers of the Units are made only through CDS and the Units must be purchased, transferred and surrendered for redemption through a CDS Participant. All rights of Unitholders must be exercised through, and all payments or other property to which such Unitholders are entitled are made or delivered by, CDS or the CDS Participant through which the Unitholder holds such Units. Upon purchase of any Units, Unitholders receive only a customer confirmation from the registered dealer which is a CDS Participant and from or through which the securities are purchased. Units may also be purchased by Unitholders under the Plan as described in section 3.2.

6.2 Issuer Bid

The Declaration of Trust provides that, subject to applicable law and stock exchange requirements, the Fund may, in its sole discretion, from time to time purchase Units in the open market for cancellation.

7.0 REDEMPTION OF SECURITIES

Subject to the Fund's right to suspend redemptions, as described in section 7.2 of this Annual Information Form, Unitholders are entitled to surrender Units for redemption in November of each year, provided the Units are surrendered by 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the last business day of October, all in accordance with the Declaration of Trust. The Declaration of Trust provides that Units surrendered for redemption will be redeemed on the Annual Redemption Date at a redemption price per Unit equal to the Annual Redemption Amount and payment will be made on or before the tenth business day of the month subsequent to the Annual Redemption Date.

7.1 General

A Unitholder who desires to exercise redemption privileges must do so by causing the CDS Participant through which he or she holds Units to deliver to CDS, at its office in the City of Toronto, on behalf of the Unitholder, a written notice of the Unitholder's intention to redeem Units. A Unitholder who desires to redeem Units should ensure that the CDS Participant is provided with notice of his or her intention to exercise the redemption right sufficiently in advance of the Annual Redemption Date deadline so as to permit the CDS Participant to deliver a notice to CDS by 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the last business day of October.

By causing a CDS Participant to deliver to CDS a notice of the Unitholder's intention to redeem Units, the Unitholder shall be deemed to have irrevocably surrendered his or her Units for redemption and appointed such CDS Participant to act as his or her exclusive settlement agent with respect to the exercise of such redemption privilege and the receipt of payment in connection with the settlement of obligations arising from such exercise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrator may from time to time, prior to the Annual Redemption Date, permit the withdrawal of a redemption notice on such terms and conditions as the Administrator may determine, in its sole discretion, provided that in the opinion of the Administrator such withdrawal will not adversely affect the Fund. Any expense associated with the preparation and delivery of a redemption notice or its withdrawal will be for the account of the Unitholder exercising the redemption privilege.

Any redemption notice that CDS determines to be incomplete, not in proper form, not duly executed or not received by the appropriate deadline outlined above in section 7.1 of this Annual Information Form shall, for all purposes, be void and of no effect and the redemption privilege to which it relates shall be considered, for all purposes, not to have been exercised. A failure by a CDS Participant to exercise redemption privileges or to give effect to the settlement thereof in accordance with a Unitholder's instructions will not give rise to any obligations or liability on the part of the Fund or the Trustee to the CDS Participant or the Unitholder.

On the redemption of Units, the Fund may, in its sole discretion, and subject to the rules in the Income Tax Act relating to the allocation of income and capital gains to redeeming Unitholders, designate payable to the redeeming Unitholder, as part of the redemption price, any income or capital gain realized by the Fund in the taxation year of the Fund in which the redemption occurred. See sections 3.1 and 11.0 of this Annual Information Form.

7.2 Suspension of Redemptions

The Declaration of Trust permits the Administrator to direct the Trustee to suspend the redemption of Units or the payment of redemption proceeds (a) for the whole or any part of a period during which normal trading is suspended on one or more stock exchanges, options exchanges or futures exchanges on which more than 50% of the Portfolio (by value) is listed and traded; or (b) upon approval from the applicable securities regulatory authority, for any period not exceeding 120 days during which the Administrator determines that conditions exist which render impractical the sale of assets of the Fund or which impair the ability of the Administrator to determine the value of the assets of the Fund. The suspension may apply to all requests for redemption received prior to the suspension, but for which payment has not been made, as well as to all requests received while the suspension is in effect. In such circumstances, all Unitholders shall have, and shall be advised that they have, the right to withdraw their requests for redemption. Redemptions that have been suspended will be effected at a price determined on the first date that the net asset value per Unit is calculated following the termination of the suspension. The suspension shall terminate in any event on the first business day on which the condition giving rise to the suspension has ceased to exist provided that no other condition under which a suspension is authorized then exists. To the extent not inconsistent with official rules and regulations promulgated by any government body having jurisdiction over the Fund, any declaration of suspension made by the Administrator shall be conclusive.

8.0 RESPONSIBILITY FOR FUND OPERATIONS

8.1 Administrator

The Declaration of Trust provides that the Trustee shall appoint or retain an administrator to manage the business and affairs of the Fund. The Trustee has appointed the Administrator pursuant to the terms of the Declaration of Trust and the Administrative Services Agreement.

Blue Ribbon Fund Management Ltd. was formed pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) by articles of incorporation dated July 10, 2009. It took over administration of the Fund effective November 20, 2009. Its head office is located at Suite 2930, Bay Wellington Tower, Brookfield Place, 181 Bay Street, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2T3. Its telephone number is (416) 642-6000, its e-mail address is info@bromptongroup.com and its website address is www.bromptongroup.com. The Administrator was organized for the purpose of managing and administering the Fund.

Pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement, the Administrator is responsible for providing, or causing to be provided, management and administrative services and facilities to the Fund, and may delegate certain of its powers to third parties at no additional cost to the Fund where, in the discretion of the Administrator, it would be in the best interests of the Fund and the Unitholders to do so. In this regard, pursuant to a sub-administrative services agreement, the Administrator has granted Brompton the authority to manage the operations and affairs of the Fund for which the Administrator is responsible pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement and to make all decisions regarding the business of the Fund. Brompton has authority to bind the Fund; however, certain actions require the consent of the Administrator. In consideration for these services, the Administrator pays to Brompton a sub-administrative services fee.

The sub-administrative services agreement has an indefinite term, unless terminated as described below. Brompton's appointment may be terminated by the Administrator on 90 days written notice to Brompton in the event of the persistent failure of Brompton to perform its duties and discharge its obligations under the sub-administrative services agreement, the continuing malfeasance or misfeasance of Brompton in the performance of its duties under the sub-administrative services agreement or if Blue Ribbon Fund Management Ltd. ceases to be the Administrator.

The sub-administrative services agreement may be terminated immediately in the event of the commission by Brompton of any fraudulent act or any misrepresentation under the sub-administrative services agreement, and is automatically terminated if the Administrative Services Agreement is terminated or if Brompton becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

The services of the officers and directors of Brompton are not exclusive to the Fund. Affiliates and associates (as defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) of the Administrator may, at any time, engage in the administration of any other fund or trust.

8.1.1 Administration Fee

The Fund pays the Administrator the Administration Fee and reimburses the Administrator for all expenses incurred in connection with its duties as Administrator. The Administrator receives an Administration Fee equal to 0.50% per annum of the net asset value of the Fund, calculated in accordance with the Administrative Services Agreement and payable monthly in arrears, plus applicable taxes.

8.1.2 Termination of the Administrative Services Agreement

The Administrative Services Agreement may be terminated by the Trustee on behalf of the Fund on 90 days written notice in the event of (a) the persistent failure of the Administrator to perform its duties and discharge its obligations under, or the continuing malfeasance or misfeasance of the Administrator in the performance of its duties under, the Administrative Services Agreement, or (b) an Extraordinary Resolution of the Unitholders at a meeting duly called for such purpose in accordance with the Declaration of Trust. The primary consideration in all portfolio transactions is the prompt execution of orders in an efficient manner at the most favourable price. In selecting and monitoring dealers, the Investment Manager considers the dealer's reliability, the quality of its execution services on a continuing basis and its financial condition. The receipt of any goods or services in addition to order execution is not a factor in selecting and monitoring dealers. Although the Investment Manager does receive investment research from certain brokers, the Investment Manager has no soft dollar or other brokerage arrangements. The Investment Manager's allocation of brokerage business is based on decisions made by the portfolio managers of the Investment Manager in accordance with the Investment Manager's policies and procedures.

The Declaration of Trust acknowledges that the Trustee may provide services to the Fund in other capacities, provided that the terms of any such arrangements are no less favourable to the Fund than those which would be obtained from parties which are at arm’s length for comparable services. The services of the Custodian and the officers and directors of the Custodian are not exclusive to the Fund. The Custodian and its affiliates and associates (as defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) may, at any time, engage in any other activity.

The Administrator and the Investment Manager and their directors and officers engage in the promotion, management or investment management of other funds or trusts with investment objectives similar to the Fund. Further, as at March 1, 2023, the percentage of securities of each class or series of voting securities beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, in aggregate, by all members of the IRC in any service provider or in any one or more Canadian chartered bank which provides a loan facility or other credit to the Fund or the Administrator is less than 0.01%.

10.0 FUND GOVERNANCE

The Administrator supports good governance practices for the Fund. The Fund is administered by the Administrator and consequently, the board of directors (the "Board") and the audit committee referred to are the board of directors and the audit committee of the Administrator. The Board is responsible for the overall stewardship of the business and affairs of the Fund. Details regarding the names, principal occupations and committee memberships of the Board members are set out in section 8.1.3 of this Annual Information Form. The Board believes that the number of directors is appropriate.

The Board members are also members of the audit committee. The responsibilities of the audit committee include, but are not limited to, review of the Fund's financial statements and the annual audit performed by PWC, the auditor of the Fund and oversight of internal controls and of the Fund's compliance with tax laws and regulations. PWC reports to the audit committee and the audit committee and PWC have direct communication channels to discuss and review specific issues as appropriate.

The Board is responsible for developing the Fund's approach to governance issues. To ensure the proper management of the Fund and compliance with regulatory requirements, the Board has adopted policies, procedures and guidelines relating to business practices, risk management control and internal conflicts of interest. As part of managing its business practices, the Board has adopted a whistleblower policy and a privacy policy and has adopted the Investment Manager's proxy voting policy. The whistleblower policy establishes a procedure for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters pertaining to the Fund. The privacy policy dictates the manner in which the Fund and the Administrator may collect, use and disclose personal information regarding the Unitholders. The proxy voting policy is described in section 10.2 of this Annual Information Form. As part of its risk management, the Board has adopted a disclosure policy. The disclosure policy sets out guidelines that aim to ensure that complete, accurate and balanced information is disclosed to the public in a timely, orderly and broad-based manner in accordance with securities laws and regulations. As part of managing potential internal conflicts of interest, the Board has adopted a code of business ethics and an insider trading policy. The code of business ethics and insider trading policy address, among other things, ethical business practices, the handling of material information and purchasing or selling of securities by insiders.

NI 81-107 requires the Administrator to have policies and procedures relating to conflicts of interest and the Administrator has such policies and procedures in place.

In accordance with NI 81-107, the Administrator has appointed the IRC to deal with potential conflict of interest matters between the Administrator and the Fund. See section 8.1.4 of this Annual Information Form.

The Fund is required to post certain regulatory disclosure documents on a designated website which can be found at www.bromptongroup.com. The Administrator has an investor relations line to respond to inquiries from Unitholders, which is 1-866-642-6001.

10.1 Composition of the Independent Review Committee

As indicated in section 8.1.4 of this Annual Information Form, the IRC is comprised of three members, the initial members of which were appointed by the Administrator in accordance with NI 81-107. Subsequent to this initial appointment by the Administrator, the IRC shall, taking into consideration any recommendation of the Administrator, fill vacancies of the IRC, provided that if for any reason the IRC has no members, the Administrator shall fill the vacancies.

10.2 Proxy Voting Policy

The Portfolio is managed by Bloom Investment Counsel, Inc. and, pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement, the Investment Manager is authorized to exercise all rights and privileges incidental to ownership for the Portfolio. The Fund has adopted the Investment Manager's proxy voting policy (the "Proxy Voting Policy"), which provides general guidance, in compliance with applicable legislation, for the voting of proxies. The ultimate decision as to how to cast a vote rests with the Investment Manager, based on what the Investment Manager believes to be in the best interests of the Fund and in accordance with its Investment Objectives, Investment Policies and Investment Restrictions.

Generally:

- a) the Investment Manager will vote with management on routine issues such as the election of directors, reappointment of auditors and the acceptance of the auditors' report. Any votes against management proposals requires the approval of two portfolio managers;
- b) non-routine matters including executive compensation, stock options, director compensation and shareholder rights plans are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. The Investment Manager believes that matters relating to a company's labour practices, environmental policies and non-discrimination policies are management issues and that management is in the best position to determine appropriate practices in the context of a company's business;
- c) where the Investment Manager is aware of an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest between its interests and the interests of the Unitholders, the Investment Manager may choose to seek out and follow the voting recommendation of an independent proxy research and voting service.

The policies and procedures that the Fund follows when voting proxies relating to Portfolio Securities are available on request, at no cost, by calling 1-866-642-6001 or by writing to the Administrator at Suite 2930, Box 793, Bay Wellington Tower, Brookfield Place, 181 Bay Street, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2T3.

The Fund's proxy voting record for the most recent period ended June 30 of each year is available free of charge to any Unitholder upon request at any time after August 31 of that year. The Fund has made its proxy voting record available at www.bromptongroup.com.

10.3 Securities Lending

In order to generate additional returns, the Administrator has entered into the Securities Lending Agreement with the Agent to administer any securities lending transactions for the Fund.

The Administrator manages the risks associated with securities lending by requiring the Agent, pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, to:

- a) enter into securities lending, repurchase or reverse purchase transactions with reputable and well-established Canadian and foreign brokers, dealers and institutions (“counterparties”);
- b) maintain internal controls, procedures and records including a list of approved counterparties based on generally accepted creditworthiness standards, transaction and credit limits for each counterparty and collateral diversification standards;
- c) establish daily the market value of both the securities loaned by the Fund under a securities lending transaction or sold by the Fund under a repurchase transaction and the cash or collateral held by the Fund. If on any day the market value of the cash or collateral is less than 102% of the market value of the borrowed or sold securities, the Agent will request that the counterparty provide additional cash or collateral to the Fund to make up the shortfall;
- d) ensure that no more than 50% of the net asset value of the Fund is out on loan at one time;
- e) ensure that the collateral to be delivered to the Fund is one or more of cash, qualified securities or securities immediately convertible into, or exchangeable for, securities of the same issuer, class or type, and same term, if applicable, as the securities being loaned by the Fund; and
- f) Obtain mutual indemnification from GSS, CMT, the Agent, and BNY in respect of all losses, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses but excluding consequential damages) arising from:
 - i) the failure to perform any obligations under the Securities Lending Agreement;
 - ii) any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made in the Securities Lending Agreement; or
 - iii) fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or reckless disregard of duties.

Each lending transaction may be terminated by the Fund at any time and the loaned securities recalled within the normal and customary settlement period for such transactions. The Securities Lending Agreement may be terminated at any time at the option of any party upon thirty days prior notice to the other parties.

The Administrator has written procedures that set out the objectives, goals and risk management practices with respect to securities lending arrangements which are reviewed annually by the Board. The Securities Lending Agreement was approved by the Board and securities lending arrangements and risks are monitored by the Administrator.

Considering the parameters set out in NI 81-102, along with the Manager’s policies and procedures relating to securities lending, no stress testing is conducted specifically with respect to positions maintained by the Fund.

With respect to collateral, by the close of the business day on which loaned securities are delivered to a borrower, the Agent shall obtain from such borrower one or more types of collateral as outlined below in an amount equal, as of such day, to 105% or such other percentage as reflects the best market practices in the market in which the securities are being lent but shall never be less than 102% of the market value of the loans, including any accrued interest.

The indemnification provisions survive termination of the Securities Lending Agreement.

10.4 Short-Term Trades

The Fund's Units trade on the TSX. The Fund does not have policies and procedures in place to monitor, detect and deter short-term trading given that:

- a) the Fund is a closed-end investment trust;
- b) Unitholders are only permitted to redeem Units on an annual basis;
- c) the Annual Redemption Amount is based on the net asset value per Unit on the second last business day of November, minus any costs associated with the redemption, including brokerage costs;
- d) for the purpose of calculating the Annual Redemption Amount the value of any security is equal to the weighted average trading price over the last three business days of the month of November; and
- e) redemptions require more than 4 weeks to process from the date a holder notifies CDS of their redemption request to the date the redemption proceeds are paid out.

11.0 INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is, as of the date hereof, a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to the acquisition, holding and disposition of Units. This summary is applicable to a holder of Units who is an individual (other than a trust) and who, for the purposes of the Income Tax Act, and at all relevant times, is, or is deemed to be, resident in Canada, deals at arm's length with and is not affiliated with the Fund and holds the Units as capital property. Generally, the Units will be considered to be capital property to a holder provided that the holder does not hold such Units in the course of carrying on a business of trading or dealing in securities and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. Certain holders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have such Units and all other "Canadian securities" (as defined in the Income Tax Act) owned or subsequently acquired by such Unitholder treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Income Tax Act. Holders should consult their own tax advisors for advice as to whether an election under subsection 39(4) of the Income Tax Act is available and/or advisable in their particular circumstances. This summary does not apply to a holder that enters into, or has entered into, a "derivative forward agreement", as such term is defined in the Income Tax Act, in respect of Units.

This summary is based on the assumption that the Fund qualifies, and will continue to qualify, at all times as a "unit trust" and a "mutual fund trust" within the meaning of the Income Tax Act. In order to so qualify, the Fund must comply on a continuous basis with certain investment criteria and certain minimum dispersal requirements relating to the Units. In addition, the Fund may not reasonably at any time be considered to be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-resident persons. If the Fund were not to qualify as a mutual fund trust at all times, the income tax consequences described herein would in some respects be materially and adversely different.

This summary is based on the assumption that none of the issuers of the securities in the Portfolio are or will be "foreign affiliates" of the Fund or of any Unitholder and that none of the securities in the Portfolio are or will be a "tax shelter investment", each within the meaning of the Income Tax Act. This summary is also based on the assumption that the Fund does not and will not invest in a share of, an interest in, or a debt of a non-resident entity or an interest in or a right or option to acquire such a share, interest or debt that would cause the Fund to include amounts in income under section 94.1 of the Income Tax Act or securities of a non-resident trust other than an “exempt foreign trust” within the meaning of the Income Tax Act.

This summary is based on the assumption that that the Fund is not and will not be a “SIFT trust” within the meaning of the SIFT Rules. The Fund has not held and will not hold investments that would result in the Fund becoming subject to the SIFT Rules in any taxation year. If the Fund were to become a SIFT trust within the meaning of the SIFT Rules, the income tax considerations discussed herein could be materially and adversely different in certain respects.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Income Tax Act and an understanding of the current administrative and assessing practices of the CRA made publicly available prior to the date hereof. It also takes into account all of the Tax Proposals. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial action, nor does it take into account other federal or any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations. There is no assurance that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed or at all.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to an investment in Units. Moreover, the income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Units will vary depending on the holder’s particular circumstances including the province or provinces in which the holder resides or carries on business. Accordingly, this summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any particular holder. Holders should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the income tax consequences of an investment in Units, based on their particular circumstances.

11.1 Taxation of the Fund

The Fund is subject to tax under Part I of the Income Tax Act in each taxation year on its income for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it deducts in respect of the amount paid or payable to Unitholders in the year. An amount will be considered to be payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year if it is paid in the year by the Fund or the Unitholder is entitled in that year to enforce payment of the amount.

A trust that is a “mutual fund trust” for purposes of the Income Tax Act throughout a taxation year that paid or made payable to a Unitholder an amount on a redemption of Units (the “allocated amount”) will be denied a deduction in computing its income for the taxation year in respect of the portion of the allocated amount (a) that would be, without reference to subsection 104(6) of the Income Tax Act, an amount paid out of the income (other than taxable capital gains) of the trust, and (b) that is a capital gain of the trust designated to a unitholder on a redemption of Units that exceeds the capital gain that would otherwise have been realized by the Unitholder on the redemption, in each case if the Unitholder’s proceeds from the disposition of that Unit do not include the allocated amount. The manager intends to administer the redemption of Units of the Fund in such a manner so as to avoid the inclusion of any income to the Fund under these rules, unless it is otherwise precluded from doing so.

With respect to each issuer included in the Portfolio that is a Canadian resident trust and that is not subject in a taxation year to the tax imposed under the SIFT Rules, the Fund will be required to include in the calculation of its income the net income and net taxable capital gains paid or payable to the Fund by the issuer in the year, notwithstanding that certain of such amounts may be reinvested in additional units of such issuer. Provided that appropriate designations are made by the issuer, net taxable capital gains, taxable dividends from taxable Canadian corporations and any foreign source income of the issuer paid or payable by the issuer to the Fund will effectively retain their character in the hands of the Fund.

The Fund will be required to reduce the adjusted cost base of units of an issuer in the Portfolio that is a Canadian resident trust and that is not subject in a taxation year to the tax imposed under the SIFT Rules by any amount paid or payable by such issuer to the Fund except to the extent that the amount was included in calculating the income of the Fund or was the Fund's share of the non-taxable portion of capital gains of such issuer, the taxable portion of which was designated in respect of the Fund. If the adjusted cost base to the Fund of such units becomes a negative amount at any time in a taxation year of the Fund, that negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain realized by the Fund in that taxation year and the Fund's adjusted cost base of such units will be increased by the amount of such deemed capital gain.

With respect to each issuer in the Portfolio that is a limited partnership and that is not subject in a taxation year to the tax imposed under the SIFT Rules, the Fund will be required, in computing its income, to include or will be entitled to deduct, as the case may be and subject to the "at-risk rules" and other provisions in the Income Tax Act, its share of net income, capital gains, losses and capital losses for tax purposes of the issuer allocated to the Fund for the fiscal year of the issuer ending in the Fund's taxation year, whether or not a distribution is received in respect thereof from the issuer.

In general, the adjusted cost base at a particular time to the Fund of units of a limited partnership will be equal to the cost of such units to the Fund plus its share of income and capital gains of the limited partnership allocated to it for fiscal years of the limited partnership ending before the particular time less the total of its share of losses and capital losses of the limited partnership allocated to it for fiscal years of the partnership ending before the particular time and the Fund's share of any distributions received from the limited partnership before the particular time. If the adjusted cost base to the Fund of units of a limited partnership is negative at the end of a fiscal year of the partnership, that negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain realized by the Fund at that time and the Fund's adjusted cost base of such units will be increased by the amount of such deemed capital gain.

Under the SIFT Rules, each issuer in the Portfolio that is a SIFT trust or SIFT partnership as defined in the SIFT Rules (which generally include income trusts (other than certain real estate investment trusts) and certain partnerships, the units of which are listed or traded on a stock exchange or other public market) is subject to a tax in respect of its "non-portfolio earnings", which include (i) income from a business carried on by the trust or partnership in Canada or from non-portfolio properties (exceeding any losses for the taxation year from non-portfolio properties), other than taxable dividends, and (ii) taxable capital gains from dispositions of non-portfolio properties (exceeding allowable capital losses from dispositions of such properties). For this purpose, non-portfolio properties include: (i) certain Canadian real and resource properties, (ii) a property that the SIFT trust or SIFT partnership (or a non-arm's length person or partnership) uses in the course of carrying on a business in Canada, and (iii) securities of a "subject entity" (other than a "portfolio investment entity") if the SIFT trust or SIFT partnership holds securities of the subject entity that have a total fair market value that is greater than 10% of the subject entity's equity value or if the SIFT trust or SIFT partnership holds securities of the subject entity which, together with all securities held of affiliates of the subject entity, have a total fair market value that is greater than 50% of the SIFT trust's or SIFT partnership's equity value. A "subject entity" includes corporations resident in Canada, trusts resident in Canada, Canadian resident partnerships and non-resident persons or partnerships that are not Canadian resident partnerships, the principal source of income of which is one or any combination of sources in Canada. A "portfolio investment entity" is an entity that does not hold any non-portfolio property. The SIFT Rules provide that non-portfolio earnings of a SIFT trust or SIFT partnership are taxed at a rate that is equivalent to the combined federal and provincial corporate tax rate. Under the SIFT Rules, non-portfolio earnings of a SIFT trust or SIFT partnership are generally taxed to unitholders as though they were a taxable dividend from a taxable Canadian corporation. Such dividend is an "eligible dividend" and should therefore benefit from the enhanced gross-up and dividend tax credit rules in the Income Tax Act.

The Fund will also be required to include in its income for each taxation year all interest on the debt securities it holds that accrues or is deemed to accrue to it to the end of the year, or becomes receivable or is received by it before the end of the year, except to the extent that such interest was included in computing its income for a preceding taxation year. The SIFT Rules should have no impact on the character of interest paid or accrued on debt issued by a SIFT trust or SIFT partnership.

The Fund will be required to include in its income for a taxation year all dividends received in the year on shares of corporations.

In computing its income for tax purposes, the Fund may deduct reasonable administrative and other expenses incurred to earn income, including interest on the Fund's loan facility, if any generally to the extent that borrowed funds are used to purchase Portfolio Securities. The Fund may deduct over a five year period agents' fees and other expenses of issuing Units subject to proration for short taxation years. Any losses incurred by the Fund cannot be allocated to Unitholders, but may generally be carried forward or back in accordance with the rules and limitations contained in the Income Tax Act and deducted in computing the taxable income of the Fund.

The CRA has expressed a view that, in certain circumstances, the deductibility of interest on money borrowed to invest in an income trust may be reduced on a pro rata basis in respect of distributions from the income trust that are a return of capital which are not reinvested for an income earning purpose. While the ability to deduct interest depends on the facts, based on the jurisprudence, the CRA's position should not adversely affect the Fund's ability to deduct interest on money borrowed to acquire income trust units in the Portfolio. If the CRA's view were to prevail and apply to the Fund, part of the interest payable by the Fund on money borrowed under the Fund's loan facility, if any to acquire units of certain income trusts in the Portfolio could be non-deductible, increasing the net income of the Fund for tax purposes and the taxable component of distributions to Unitholders. Income of the Fund that is not distributed to Unitholders would be subject to non-refundable income tax in the Fund.

In determining the income of the Fund, gains or losses realized upon dispositions of Portfolio Securities of the Fund will constitute capital gains or capital losses of the Fund in the year realized unless the Fund is considered to be trading or dealing in securities or otherwise carrying on a business of buying and selling securities or the Fund has acquired the securities in a transaction or transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. The Fund purchases the Portfolio Securities with the objective of earning distributions and income thereon and takes the position that gains and losses realized on the disposition thereof are capital gains and capital losses. In addition, the Fund has elected in accordance with the Income Tax Act to have each of its "Canadian securities" (as defined in the Income Tax Act) treated as capital property. Such election is intended to ensure that gains or losses realized by the Fund on the disposition of Canadian securities, including most units of income trusts structured as mutual fund trusts, are taxed as capital gains or capital losses.

The Portfolio may include securities that are not denominated in Canadian dollars. Proceeds of disposition of securities, distributions, interest and all other amounts will be determined for the purposes of the Income Tax Act in Canadian dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the time of the transaction. The Fund may realize gains or losses by virtue of the fluctuation in the value of foreign currencies relative to Canadian dollars.

The Fund may derive income or gains from investments in countries other than Canada and, as a result, may be liable to pay income or profits tax to such countries. To the extent that such foreign tax paid does not exceed 15% of such amount and has not been deducted in computing the Fund's income, the Fund may designate a portion of its foreign source income in respect of a Unitholder so that such income and a portion of the foreign tax paid by the Fund may be regarded as foreign source income of, and foreign tax paid by, the Unitholder for the purposes of the foreign tax credit provisions of the Income Tax Act. To the extent that such foreign tax paid by the Fund exceeds 15% of the amount included in the Fund's income from such investments, such excess may generally be deducted by the Fund in computing its income for the purposes of the Income Tax Act.

The Fund will be entitled for each taxation year throughout which it is a mutual fund trust to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized capital gains by an amount determined under the Income Tax Act based on the redemptions of Units during the year (“capital gains refund”). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset the tax liability of the Fund for such taxation year which may arise upon the sale of Portfolio Securities in connection with redemptions of Units.

The Fund generally intends to deduct, in computing its income in each taxation year, the full amount available for deduction in each year. Therefore, provided the Fund makes distributions in each year of its net income for tax purposes and net realized capital gains as described in section 3.2 of this Annual Information Form, it will generally not be liable in such year for income tax under Part I of the Income Tax Act other than such tax on net realized capital gains that would be recoverable by it in such year by reason of the capital gains refund.

11.2 Taxation of Unitholders

A Unitholder generally will be required to include in computing income for a taxation year the amount of the Fund’s net income for the taxation year, including the taxable portion of the Fund’s net realized capital gains, paid or payable, or deemed to be paid or payable, to the Unitholder in the taxation year whether received in cash, in additional Units or otherwise. The non-taxable portion of the net realized capital gains of the Fund paid or payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year will not be included in computing the Unitholder’s income for the year. Any amount in excess of the Unitholder’s share of the net income and the net realized capital gains of the Fund for a taxation year that is paid or becomes payable to the Unitholder in such year generally will not be included in the Unitholder’s income for the year but will reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unitholder’s Units. To the extent that the adjusted cost base of a Unit becomes less than zero, the negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain and the adjusted cost base of the Unit to the Unitholder will then be increased by the amount of such deemed capital gain.

Provided that appropriate designations are made by the Fund, such portion of (i) the net realized taxable capital gains of the Fund; (ii) the foreign source income of the Fund and foreign taxes eligible for the foreign tax credit; and (iii) the taxable dividends received, or deemed to be received, by the Fund on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, as is paid or payable to a Unitholder will effectively retain its character and be treated as such in the hands of the Unitholder for purposes of the Income Tax Act. To the extent that amounts are designated as taxable dividends from taxable Canadian corporations, the normal gross-up and dividend tax credit rules will apply, including the enhanced gross-up and tax credit in respect of eligible dividends. Any loss of the Fund for purposes of the Income Tax Act cannot be allocated to, and cannot be treated as a loss of, a Unitholder.

A Unitholder who acquires additional Units may become taxable on the Unitholder’s share of any income and gains of the Fund that have accrued or been realized but have not been made payable at the time the additional Units are acquired.

On the disposition or deemed disposition of Units (whether on a sale, repurchase, redemption or otherwise), the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that the Unitholder’s proceeds of disposition (other than any amount payable by the Fund which represents an amount that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder’s income) exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Units and any reasonable costs of disposition. Any additional Units acquired by a Unitholder on a distribution satisfied by the issuance of additional Units or on the reinvestment of distributions will generally have a cost equal to the amount distributed or reinvested, as the case may be. If a Unitholder participates in the Plan and the Unitholder acquires a Unit from the Fund at a price that is less than the then fair market value of the Unit, it is the administrative position of the CRA that the Unitholder must include the difference in income and that the cost of the Unit will be correspondingly increased.

For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of the Units, when a Unit is acquired, the cost of the newly-acquired Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Units owned by the Unitholder as capital property at that time.

One-half of any capital gain realized on the disposition of Units will be included in the Unitholder's income and one-half of any capital loss realized may be deducted from taxable capital gains in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act.

In general terms, net income of the Fund paid or payable to a Unitholder that is designated as taxable dividends from taxable Canadian corporations or as net taxable capital gains, and capital gains realized on the disposition of Units, may increase the Unitholder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

Exchange of Tax Information

Part XVIII of the Income Tax Act imposes due diligence and reporting obligations on “reporting Canadian financial institutions” in respect of their “U.S. reportable accounts”. The Fund is a “reporting Canadian financial institution” but as long as Units continue to be listed on the TSX, the Fund should not have any “U.S. reportable accounts” and, as a result, it should not be required to provide information to the CRA in respect of Unitholders. The dealers, however, through which Unitholders hold their Units are subject to due diligence and reporting obligations with respect to financial accounts that they maintain for their clients. Unitholders would be requested to provide information to their dealer to identify U.S. persons holding Units as well as “controlling persons” of Unitholders who are U.S. persons. If a Unitholder, or its controlling person, is a U.S. person (including, for example, a U.S. citizen or green card holder who is resident in Canada) or if the Unitholder does not provide the requested information, Part XVIII of the Income Tax Act will generally require information about the Unitholder's investment in the Fund held in the financial account maintained by the dealer to be reported to the CRA, unless the Units are held within a Registered Plan (other than a first home savings account). The FHSA Amendments do not address whether first home savings accounts would be treated in the same way as Registered Plans for these purposes. The CRA will automatically provide such information to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Income Tax Act was amended such that it now contains rules similar to the foregoing in respect of non-Canadian non-U.S. resident investors (the “CRS Legislation”). Pursuant to the CRS Legislation, “Canadian financial institutions” (as defined in the CRS Legislation) would be required to have procedures in place to identify accounts held by residents of foreign countries (other than the U.S.) or by certain entities the “controlling persons” of which are resident in such foreign countries and to report required information to the CRA. The information would then be available for sharing with the jurisdiction in which the account holder, or such controlling person, resides for tax purposes under the provisions and safeguards of the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters or the relevant bilateral tax treaty. As long as Units are registered in the name of CDS, the Fund should not have any reportable accounts and, as a result, should not be required to provide information to the CRA in respect of its Unitholders. Unitholders, however, will be required to provide certain information including their tax identification numbers to their dealer for the purpose of such information exchange unless their investment is held within a Registered Plan (other than a first home savings account). The FHSA Amendments do not address whether first home savings accounts would be treated in the same way as Registered Plans for these purposes.

12.0 REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, IRC MEMBERS AND TRUSTEES

The Administrator is paid the Administration Fee as disclosed in section 8.1.1 of this Annual Information Form. The directors of the Administrator do not receive any fees from the Fund. The Fund pays the fees of the IRC which for 2022 were $8,000 for each of Mr. Woolner, Mr. Kothari and Ms. Meredith. IRC fees are determined by the IRC based on a recommendation of the Administrator. The Fund also pays the expenses of the IRC and directors incurred on behalf of the Fund. No expenses were paid in 2022.

For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Trustee was paid fees of $8,729 in its capacity as trustee of the Fund.

13.0 MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The Fund and/or the Administrator, on behalf of the Fund, is party to the Declaration of Trust, the Administrative Services Agreement, the Investment Management Agreement and the Custodial Services Agreement. Copies of these material contracts may be accessed by prospective or existing Unitholders at www.sedar.com under the Fund's profile. They are also available at the Fund's office during normal business hours. Details regarding each of these contracts are provided in section 1.1 of this Annual Information Form, in the case of the Declaration of Trust, and in section 8 of this Annual Information Form, in the case of the other agreements.

14.0 OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

14.1 Risk Factors

Certain risk factors relating to the Fund and the Units are described below. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to the Administrator, or that are currently considered immaterial, may also impair the operations of the Fund. If any such risk actually occurs, the business, financial condition, liquidity or results of operations of the Fund and the ability of the Fund to make distributions on the Units, could be materially adversely affected.

No Assurance of Achieving Investment Objectives or Monthly Distributions

There is no assurance that the Fund will be able to achieve its Investment Objectives or distribution objectives. Furthermore, there is no assurance that the Fund will be able to pay distributions in the short or long term, nor is there any assurance that the net asset value will be preserved. Changes in the relative weightings between the various types of investment vehicles making up the Portfolio Securities can affect the overall yield to Unitholders. The distributions received by the Fund from the Portfolio Securities may vary from month to month and certain issuers may pay distributions less frequently than monthly, with the result that revenue generated by the Portfolio Securities and available for distribution to Unitholders may vary substantially.

Distributions

The Fund intends to pay monthly distributions on all Units. The Administrator will review such distribution policy from time to time and the distribution amount may change. If the return on the Portfolio (including Net Capital Gains from the sale of securities in the Portfolio) is less than the amount necessary to fund the monthly distributions, the Administrator will return a portion of the capital of the Fund to Unitholders to ensure the distribution is paid and, accordingly, the net asset value per Unit would be reduced.

Market Volatility

Market prices of investments held by the Fund will go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. The Fund's investments are subject to changes in general market conditions, market fluctuations and risks inherent in the securities markets. Securities markets can be volatile and prices of investments can change substantially due to various factors including, but not limited to, economic growth or recession, changes in interest rates, changes in actual or perceived creditworthiness of issuers and general market liquidity. Even if general economic conditions do not change, the value of an investment in the Fund could decline if the particular industries, sectors or companies in which the Fund invests do not perform well or are adversely affected by certain events. In addition, legal, political, regulatory and tax changes may also cause fluctuations in markets and the price of securities. Certain market conditions, volatility or illiquidity in capital markets may also adversely affect the prospects of the Fund and the value of the Portfolio Securities. A substantial decline in the North American equities markets could be expected to have a negative effect on the Fund and the market price of the Units.

COVID-19

The outbreak of the respiratory disease designated as COVID-19 in December 2019 has caused significant market volatility in global financial markets. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic may be short term or may last for an extended period of time, and in either case could result in a substantial economic downturn or recession. The securities of the Fund may be sensitive to general market movements, which may result in price volatility for such securities and in the Fund's net asset value.

Market Disruptions

War and occupation, terrorism and related geopolitical risks or other factors including global health risks or epidemics/pandemics may lead to increased short-term market volatility and may have adverse long-term effects on world economies and markets generally. Those events could also have an acute effect on individual issuers or related groups of issuers. These risks could also adversely affect securities markets, inflation and other factors relating to the securities held in the Portfolio.

Loss of Investment

An investment in the Fund is appropriate only for investors who have the capacity to absorb investment losses.

No Guaranteed Return

There is no guarantee that an investment in the Fund will earn any positive return in the short or long term.

Performance of the Portfolio Securities

The net asset value of the Units will vary according to the value of the Portfolio Securities and in some cases the value of the Portfolio Securities will be affected by factors beyond the control of the Investment Manager, the Administrator or the Fund. There is no assurance that an adequate market exists for the Portfolio Securities acquired by the Fund. The Portfolio Securities issued by issuers who are not reporting issuers in all provinces may be subject to an indefinite hold period under certain provincial securities legislation. In many circumstances, the issuers of the Portfolio Securities which the Fund may acquire have limited operating histories. The amounts which such issuers have been distributing may not be sustainable and the forecast distributions of such issuers may not be realized. The value of the Portfolio Securities will be influenced by factors which are not within the control of the Fund, which, in the case of resource-oriented securities, include the financial performance of the respective issuers, commodity prices, exchange rates, interest rates, the hedging policies employed by such issuers, issues relating to the regulation of the natural resource industry and operational risks relating to the resource sector and other financial market conditions. In the case of real estate investment trusts, such factors include the quality of the real estate investment trust's property portfolio, the perception of and the abilities of the real estate investment trust's advisor, the prospects for the Canadian and US commercial real estate market and the economy in general, including the level and likely direction of interest rates.

Sensitivity to Interest Rates

It is anticipated that the market price for the Units and the value of the Portfolio Securities at any given time will be affected by the level of interest rates prevailing at such time. A rise in interest rates may have a negative effect on the market price of the Units and increase the cost of borrowing of the Fund, if any. Unitholders who wish to redeem or sell their Units may, therefore, be exposed to the risk that the redemption price or sale price of the Units will be negatively affected by interest rate fluctuations.

Trading Price of the Units

The Units may trade in the market at a discount to the net asset value per Unit and there can be no assurance that the Units will trade at a price equal to the net asset value per Unit. Units will be redeemable at 100% of the net asset value per Unit on an applicable Annual Redemption Date less any costs associated with the redemption, including brokerage costs. While the redemption right provides Unitholders the option of annual liquidity at the net asset value per Unit, there can be no assurance that it will reduce any trading discounts of the Units.

Real Estate Investments

Investments in REITs are subject to the general risks associated with real property investments. Real property investments are affected by various factors including changes in general economic conditions (such as availability of long term mortgage funds) and in local conditions (such as oversupply of space or a reduction in demand for real estate in the area), the attractiveness of the properties to tenants, competition from other available space and various other factors. The value of real property and any improvements thereto may also depend on the credit and financial stability of the tenants. A REIT's income and funds available for distributions to its securityholders would be adversely affected if a significant number of tenants were to become unable to meet their obligations to the REIT or if the REIT were unable to lease a significant amount of available space in its properties on economically favourable lease terms.

Commodity Price Fluctuations

The operations and financial condition of the issuers of certain of the Portfolio Securities and, accordingly, the amount of distributions paid on such securities will be dependent on commodity prices applicable to such issuers. Prices for commodities may vary and are determined by supply and demand factors including weather and general economic and political conditions. A decline in commodity prices could have an adverse effect on the operations and financial condition of the issuers of such securities and the amount of distributions paid on such securities. In addition, certain commodity prices are based on a US dollar market price. Accordingly, an increase in the value of the Canadian dollar against the US dollar could reduce the amount of distributions paid on such securities.

Illiquid Securities

There is no assurance that an adequate market will exist for the Portfolio Securities. The Fund cannot predict whether the Portfolio Securities will trade at a discount to, a premium to, or at their respective net asset values. In addition, if the Investment Manager determines that it is appropriate to acquire certain securities for the Portfolio, the Investment Manager may be unable to acquire such securities in quantities or at prices which are acceptable to the Investment Manager, if the market for such securities is particularly illiquid.

If the Investment Manager is unable, or determines that it is inappropriate to dispose of some or all of the Portfolio Securities prior to the termination of the Fund, Unitholders may, subject to applicable laws, receive distributions of Portfolio Securities in specie upon the termination of the Fund, for which there may be illiquid market or which may be subject to resale restrictions of indefinite duration. Assets so distributed may not be qualified investments for Registered Plans which would have adverse tax consequences to such Registered Plans and/or their annuitants, subscribers or beneficiaries.

Installment Receipts

Certain of the Portfolio Securities may be installment receipts representing ownership interests in securities, the original issue price of which is payable on an installment basis. The Fund may be required to pay subsequent installments despite a decline in the value of the securities of an issuer in which the Fund invests.

Composition of Portfolio

The composition of the Portfolio may vary widely from time to time and may be concentrated by type of security, commodity, industry or geography, resulting in the Portfolio being less diversified than anticipated. Overweighting investments in certain sectors or industries involves risk that the Fund will suffer a loss because of declines in the prices of securities in those sectors or industries.

Reliance on the Investment Manager, the Administrator and the Sub-Administrator

The Fund is dependent on the Investment Manager for investment advisory and portfolio management services and upon the Administrator and the Sub-Administrator for the provision of all other required services. The officers of the Investment Manager who will be primarily responsible for the management of the portfolio have extensive experience in managing investment portfolios, however, there is no certainty that such individuals will continue as employees of the Investment Manager and there is no certainty that the officers of the Administrator and the Sub-Administrator will continue as employees of the Administrator and/or Sub-Administrator until the termination of the Fund.

General Risks of Investing in Equity Securities

The Fund is subject to the risks inherent in investments in equity securities, including the risk that the financial condition of the issuers in which the Fund invests may become impaired or that the general condition of the stock markets may deteriorate. Equity securities are susceptible to general stock market fluctuations and to volatile increases and decreases in value as market confidence in, and perceptions of, the issuers change. In addition, issuers of equity securities may reduce or eliminate dividends or distributions.

General Risks of Investing in Debt Instruments

Generally, debt instruments will decrease in value when interest rates rise and increase in value when interest rates decline. The net asset value of the Fund will fluctuate with interest rate changes and the corresponding changes in the value of the Fund's investments. The value of debt instruments is also affected by the risk of default in the payment of interest and principal and price changes due to such factors as general economic conditions and the issuer's creditworthiness. Debt instruments may not pay interest or their issuers may default on their obligations to pay interest and/or principal amounts. Certain of the debt instruments that may be included in the Portfolio from time to time may be unsecured, which will increase the risk of loss in case of default or insolvency of the issuer. Global financial markets experienced a significant re-pricing over recent years, which has contributed to a reduction in liquidity and the availability of credit, enhancing the likelihood of default by some issuers due to diminishing profitability or an inability to refinance existing debt.

Nature of the Units

The Units are neither fixed income nor equity securities. The Units represent a fractional interest in the assets of the Fund. Units are dissimilar to debt instruments in that there is no principal amount owing to Unitholders. Unitholders will not have the statutory rights normally associated with ownership of shares of a corporation including, for example, the right to bring "oppression" or "derivative" actions. An investment in Units does not constitute an investment by Unitholders in the securities included in the Portfolio. Unitholders will not own the securities held by the Fund.

Use of Leverage

The Fund may utilize leverage in order to enhance returns for Unitholders. The use of leverage may result in capital losses or a decrease in distributions to Unitholders. The interest expense and banking fees incurred in respect of a loan facility may exceed the incremental capital gains, if any, and income generated by the incremental investment with the borrowed funds in securities to be included in the Portfolio. There can be no assurance that the borrowing strategy employed by the Fund will enhance returns. In addition, the Fund may not be able to renew a loan facility on acceptable terms. The level of leverage actually employed may impose additional restrictions on the Fund and the Fund will be affected by credit markets and the availability of credit at the relevant time.

Taxation of the Fund

The SIFT Rules impose a tax on certain income (other than taxable dividends) earned by certain publicly traded trusts and partnerships (other than certain real estate investment trusts) and treat distributions or allocations of such income to investors as a dividend from a taxable Canadian corporation. The SIFT Rules do not change the tax treatment of distributions that are paid as a return of capital by SIFT trusts. The investment objectives of the Fund provide investors with exposure to its portfolio of investments that may include securities of income trusts and limited partnerships to which the SIFT Rules apply. The SIFT Rules may reduce the tax effectiveness of holding units of income trusts and partnerships that are subject to the SIFT Rules, and may negatively impact the value of income trust units and units of partnerships held by the Fund. Further, no assurance can be given that Canadian federal income tax law respecting the taxation of income trusts and other flow-through entities will not be further changed in a manner that adversely affects the Fund and its Unitholders.

Under the SIFT Rules a Canadian resident trust (other than a “real estate investment trust” as defined in the SIFT Rules) or partnership the units of which are listed or traded on a stock exchange or other public market and that hold one or more “non-portfolio properties” (as defined in the SIFT Rules) is a SIFT trust or SIFT partnership, as the case may be. If the SIFT Rules become applicable to the Fund, it will be subject to a tax on certain income (other than taxable dividends), commencing in the taxation year in which it becomes a SIFT trust, notwithstanding that the income is distributed to Unitholders. Unitholders will be taxed on distributions of such income in a manner similar to dividends from a taxable Canadian corporation. The deemed dividend is eligible for the enhanced dividend tax credit if paid or allocated to a resident of Canada. The Fund has not held and will not hold investments that would result in the Fund becoming subject to the SIFT Rules in any taxation year. If the Fund were to become a SIFT trust within the meaning of the SIFT Rules, the income tax considerations discussed in section 11.0 of this Annual Information Form could be materially and adversely different in certain respects.

The Fund is and will be, at all material times, a mutual fund trust for purposes of the Income Tax Act. If the Fund ceases to qualify as a “mutual fund trust” under the Income Tax Act, the income tax considerations would be materially and adversely different in certain respects. There can be no assurance that Canadian federal and provincial income tax laws respecting the treatment of mutual fund trusts will not be changed in a manner that adversely affects the Unitholders.

While the Fund has been structured so that it will generally not be liable to pay income tax, information available to the Fund and the Administrator relating to the characterization, for tax purposes, of the distributions received by the Fund in any year from issuers of securities in the portfolio of investments may be insufficient as at December 31 of that year to ensure that the Fund will make sufficient distributions in order that it will not be liable to pay non-refundable income tax in respect of that year.

The CRA has expressed a view that, in certain circumstances, the deductibility of interest on money borrowed to invest in an income trust may be reduced on a pro rata basis in respect of distributions from the income trust that are a return of capital which are not reinvested for an income earning purpose. If the CRA's view were to apply to the Fund, part of the interest payable by the Administrator in connection with money borrowed to acquire certain Portfolio Securities could be non-deductible, increasing the net income of the Fund for tax purposes and the taxable component of distributions to Unitholders. Income of the Fund which is not distributed to Unitholders would be subject to non-refundable income tax in the Fund.

Pursuant to rules in the Income Tax Act, if the Fund experiences a "loss restriction event" (i) it will be deemed to have a year-end for tax purposes (which would result in an unscheduled distribution of the Fund's net income and net realized capital gains, if any, at such time to Unitholders so that the Fund is not liable for income tax on such amounts under Part I of the Income Tax Act), and (ii) it will become subject to the loss restriction rules generally applicable to a corporation that experiences an acquisition of control, including a deemed realization of any unrealized capital losses and restrictions on its ability to carry forward losses. Generally, the Fund will be subject to a loss restriction event if a Unitholder becomes a "majority-interest beneficiary", or a group of persons becomes a "majority-interest group of beneficiaries", of the Fund, as those terms are defined in the affiliated persons rules contained in the Income Tax Act, with certain modifications. Generally, a majority-interest beneficiary of the Fund is a beneficiary in the income or capital, as the case may be, of the Fund whose beneficial interests, together with the beneficial interests of persons and partnerships with whom the beneficiary is affiliated, have a fair market value that is greater than 50% of the fair market value of all the interests in the income or capital, as the case may be, of the Fund. Please see "Income Tax Considerations – Taxation of Unitholders" for the tax consequences of an unscheduled or other distribution to Unitholders. If the Fund qualifies as an "investment fund" as defined in the rules in the Income Tax Act relating to loss restriction events it generally is excepted from the application of such rules. An "investment fund" for this purpose includes a trust that meets certain conditions, including satisfying certain of the conditions necessary to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Income Tax Act, not holding any property that it uses in the course of carrying on a business and complying with certain asset diversification requirements. If the Fund were not to qualify as an "investment fund", it could potentially have a loss restriction event and thereby become subject to the related tax consequences described above.

Status of the Fund

As the Fund is not a mutual fund as defined under Canadian securities laws, the Fund is not subject to the Canadian policies and regulations that apply to open-end mutual funds.

Conflicts of Interest

The Administrator and the Investment Manager, their respective directors and officers and their respective affiliates and associates may engage in the promotion, management or investment management of one or more funds or trusts with similar investment objectives to those of the Fund.

Although none of the directors or officers of the Administrator or the Investment Manager devotes his or her full time to the business and affairs of the Fund, the Administrator and the Investment Manager, as applicable, each director and officer of the Administrator and the Investment Manager devotes as much time as is necessary to supervise the management of (in the case of the directors), or to manage the business and affairs of (in the case of officers), the Fund, the Administrator and the Investment Manager, as applicable.

Changes in Legislation and Regulations

There can be no assurance that certain laws applicable to the Fund, including income tax laws, government incentive programs, the treatment of mutual fund trusts under the Income Tax Act and securities legislation applicable to the Fund will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Fund or the Unitholders. If such laws change, such changes could have a negative effect upon the value of the Fund, the Units and upon investment opportunities of the Fund.

Securities Lending

The Fund may engage in securities lending. Although the Fund will receive collateral for the loans and such collateral will be marked-to-market, the Fund will be exposed to the risk of loss should the borrower default on its obligation to return the borrowed securities and the collateral be insufficient to reconstitute the portfolio of loaned securities.

Not a Trust Company

The Fund is not a trust company and, accordingly, is not registered under the trust company legislation of any jurisdiction. Units are not “deposits” within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act and are not insured under provisions of that Act or any other legislation.

Significant Redemptions

The purpose of the annual redemption right is to prevent Units from trading at a substantial discount and to provide investors with the right to eliminate entirely any trading discount once per year. While the redemption right provides investors the option of annual liquidity, there can be no assurance that it will reduce trading discounts. There is a risk that the Fund may incur significant redemptions if Units trade at a significant discount to their net asset value per Unit. If a significant number of Units were redeemed, the trading liquidity of the Units could be significantly reduced. In addition, the expenses of the Fund would be spread among fewer Units resulting in a potentially lower distribution per Unit. The Administrator has the ability to terminate the Fund, if, in its opinion, it would be in the best interests of the Unitholders to do so. The Administrator may also suspend the redemption of Units as described in section 7.2 of this Annual Information Form.

Cybersecurity Risk

The information and technology systems of Brompton Funds, the Fund’s key service providers (including its custodian, registrar and transfer agent, valuation services provider, securities lending agents and Investment Manager) and the issuers of securities in which the Fund invests may be vulnerable to cybersecurity risks from a cybersecurity incident such as potential damage or interruption from computer viruses, network failures, computer and telecommunications failures, infiltration by unauthorized persons (e.g. through hacking or malicious software) and general security breaches. A cybersecurity incident is an adverse intentional or unintentional action or event that threatens the integrity, confidentiality or availability of the Fund’s information resources.

A cybersecurity incident may disrupt business operations or result in the theft of confidential or sensitive information, including personal information, or may cause system failures, disrupt business operations or require Brompton Funds or a service provider to make a significant investment to fix, replace or remedy the effects of such incident. Furthermore, a cybersecurity incident could cause disruptions and negatively impact the Fund’s business operations, potentially resulting in financial losses to the Fund and Unitholders. There is no guarantee that the Fund or Brompton Funds will not suffer material losses as a result of cybersecurity incidents. If they occur, such losses could materially adversely impact the Fund’s net asset value.
